

Overview of “Electric Power Supply and Demand Task Force”

1. Date established: May 9, 2011

2. Organization

Task force director: Akihisa Mizuno (President & Director)

Deputy task force directors:

Satoru Katsuno	Director, Senior Managing Executive Officer, and General Manager of Corporate Planning & Strategy Division
Masatoshi Sakaguchi	Director, Executive Vice President, and General Manager of Power Generation Division
Akira Matsuyama	Director, Senior Managing Executive Officer, and General Manager of Power System Division
Tomohiko Ohno	Director, Senior Managing Executive Officer, and General Manager of Customer Service Division

Task force members: 12 concerned department directors

Corporate Planning & Strategy Division, Power Trading Department, Corporate Communication Department, Fuels Department, Customer Service Division [Customer Service & Sales Department, Customer Service & Sales (Large Accounts) Department, Distribution Department], Power System Division [Power System Operations Department, Electrical Engineering Department], Power Generation Division [Thermal Power Department, Nuclear Power Department, Civil & Architectural Engineering Department]

17 persons total

(Reference)

An “Electricity Supply and Demand Task Force” was previously established in the summer of 2009.